

Brenda - SWUAV

Hello, I'm Brenda, and I know the families are going through a lot of pain and aggravation. I just want to say be supportive of one another and love each other as much as possible. All my prayers are with you and SWUAV gives you all our love and just a lot of support for you and all my prayers are with you all my relations.

SWUAV is an outreach program that's been happening. SWUAV is an outreach program that's been happening for 10-13 years and we're always here for the ladies and give them all support and love at the same time and if you need to talk we're always here and how much we love all you girls we want to give you all the support and love as much as possible
